

INVITATION

Summer School

Collaborative Research Center 228

'Future Rural Africa: Future-Making and Social-Ecological Transformation'

20-23 SEPTEMBER 2022

UNAM, Windhoek

Funded by
DFG Deutsche
Forschungsgemeinschaft
German Research Foundation

Programme

Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
9:00 Panel Presentations*	Methods training*	Methods training	Michael Brüntrup: Interactive Mapping
10:30	Coffee Break
11:00 Panel Presentations*	Methods training	Methods training	Closing Remarks
12:30	Lunch
13:30 Panel Presentations	Methods training	Methods training
15:00	Coffee Break
15:30 Panel Presentations	Methods training	Methods training
17:30 Twenty-First Century Conservation in Africa: Contemporary Dilemmas, Future Challenges - Michael Bollig	Nucleus-Outgrower Schemes: a Chance for Prospering Smallholders or an Exploitation Model? - Michael Brüntrup	A Namibian Industrial Future: Preparing for the 4th Industrial Revolution in All Sectors - Anicia Peters
The Namibian Tourism Sector after Covid 19 - James David	Organic Agriculture in Namibia: Turning a Fair Advantage into Profits - Eckhart Fortsch	Resource Extraction as Development Panacea: Lessons Learnt from the Oil and Gas Industry in Southeast Asia - Javier Revilla Diez
19:00	Leisure Time		Dinner Roof of Africa Hotel

*Four parallel training sessions:

- Anthropological Fieldwork and Methods Workshop (Olwage, Menestrey & Nghiteveleka)
- Archives and Historical Methods Training in Theory and Practice (Jackson, Moore, Likuwa & Kangumu)
- Impact Evaluation of development and nature conservation programmes (Börner & Haile Gebrekidan)
- Introduction to QGIS: Data collection, organization, and visualization for empirical field work (Tups & Hamunyela)

*Nature Conservation & Local Practices (Bennett Kangumu, Michael Bollig & Diego Menestrey), Ecology and Land Transformation (Lydia Chabala, Evans Sumasiku & Lucas Rutina), Economic Development & Community Empowerment (Joseph Mbaiwa, Enock Sakala & Javier Revilla Diez). Consult handout for more detailed information on panel presentations.

